Hello! I am enclosing most of the copies you requested. We don't have the Jennings County marriage records, but I did find George Clem listed in the 1860 Bartholomew County IN census. A copy is enclosed. By 1870 he was living in Cumberland County IL with Elias La Fever as his next door neighbor. We don't have the Cumberland County census microfilm, so I am sending a printout from the Heritage Quest database. I am also sending a copy from the 1880 Crawford County IL census listing Josiah Crews.

I couldn't find the marriage of David Crews and Jane Jewell in the index to Vigo County marriages from 1818 to 1850 or in the State Library's database of Indiana marriages prior to 1851. Two nearby counties, Sullivan and Clay, suffered courthouse fires, which destroyed the early records around 1850 and I suspect your ancestors married in one of those counties. I believe Jewell is a Sullivan County name.

Regarding the census listings, I found four David Crews/Cruises/Cruses listed in 1840. Since the wives and children were not named, I couldn't tell which one was yours. I copied them all, but I suspect the Sullivan County David was your man as James Shoemaker was there too. I am also sending the 1850-70 census listings for Jane and her children. I couldn't find David or Jane Crews in our books of Vigo and Sullivan County cemetery records, but I did find their sons Jeremiah and William in the W.P.A. index to Vigo County death records.

The Shoemakers are definitely a confusing family. I found a Floyd County marriage between a James Shoemaker and a Melinda Crane in the State Library's marriage database but didn't find a marriage to a Malinda Walker. A James Shoemaker did appear on the 1840 Sullivan County census. James and Malinda were also listed on the 1850 Sullivan County census. In 1860 James was listed in Sullivan County with a wife named Harriet. However, the names and ages of the children (John, Manerva, William, and Malinda) were consistent with the 1850 census entries. I couldn't find an adult Melinda/Malinda Shoemaker, Shewmaker, Shumaker on the every name index to the 1860 Indiana census. By 1870 a 60-year-old Shoemaker woman (Melinda?) was listed next door to Josiah Cruse in the Sullivan County census. She had a William and a Mary living with her, and their ages were consistent with the William and Mary who had been living with James and Harriet in 1860. However, Malinda and America had disappeared. Interestingly enough, Margaret and Emma were exactly ten years older than Malinda and America. I don't know what to think of the James and Nancy Shoemaker with the Etherton children on the 1870 Vigo County census. What happened to Harriet? In 1880 Harriet popped up in Prairie Creek Township, Vigo County, in the household of Mary L. Hunt. Mary's brother, William Shoemaker, was living with them. There were a number of Shoemakers in Prairie Creek Township, but I'm not sure they were all related. There was a John Shoemaker, but he was probably too old to have been your John. I didn't have much success finding the Shoemaker brothers on the 1900 census as I didn't know the names of their wives. I couldn't find anyone exactly the right age.

The W.P.A. Index to the Sullivan County death records lists a William Shoemaker who died in 1916 at the age of 69. That could well have been your William. We don't have the actual death certificates, only the indexes. You must obtain the death certificates from the county health departments. The Sullivan County Health Dept. is located at 901 N. Section St., Sullivan IN 47882, (812) 268-0224. Death certificates are $6.00 each. You might also contact the Sullivan County Public Library, 100 S. Crowder St., Sullivan IN 47802, to see if you can find William's obituary.

Thanks for the $10.00; it was enough for the copies and postage with some left for the gift fund. It's possible that your work researching old newspapers contributed to our collection. We have files of newspaper clippings, plus a miscellaneous card index to the old newspapers that were once in the basement of the old Emeline Fairbanks Memorial Library. Both files have proven very useful over the years. Now, of course, we are in a different building, and all the newspapers are on microfilm.

Dear Ms. Sherrill,

Thank you again for all your efforts in assisting me in attempting to piece together my families' background. I wish I had started this project twenty or thirty years ago when many people were still alive. Alas I did not, so I press on. Here is the wish list of have compiled:

At that facility you have to go in person, find the census and make the copy in person. That is almost impossible for me to do.

I am enclosing a check for all of the above copies with a guesstimate of the postage needed plus a small sum for additional research you may have to do on my behalf.

I cannot believe the Vigo Co. Public Library has developed into such a highly useful tool for the good of the public. I remember when I was in my last two years of high school at Garfield High in 1950-51 and in need of employment. I was taught by a very elderly gentleman at the Clabber Girl facility on researching very old newspapers for certain articles on the history of Terre Haute. At that time the research department was in the basement and it was very dark and rather damp. I guess I am still researching.

Sincerely,

Donna Clem Weisman

Hi Nancy! I sent the check for copies of my wish list yesterday and hopefully you will be receiving it by the end of the week.

not in WP a CD but it doesn't include Jennings Co

I just discovered that my ggrandfather George Washington Clem and ggrandmother Mary Lefever were married in Jennings Co., IN. I have been given the date of 16 Aug 1855. The first three sons were born in IN. Alonzo 16 Jun 1856, Oscar 1856 and Louis 1860. We don't have Jennings Co marr.

I am not convinced they were married in Jennings Co., IN as they both came from the OH area and possibly settled in IN.

Regardless they should show up in the IN census of 1860. They later moved onto IL and settled in Union, Cumberland Co., IL by the 1880 census. If they are still in IN in the 1870 census will you please make a copy of both census records for me? Can you check to see if the marriage did indeed occur in IN? There should be enough "cushion" in the check I sent to you for this.

Thanks again for your help!!!!! Donna Clem Weisman

Thank you, Nancy!!!! You have been a tremendous help! I am sending you a "wish list" by snail mail and a check, will you accept personal checks?

The finding of a James Shewmaker burial record in 1863 really caught my attention. Mary Ellen spelled her name exactly that way on her marriage application of 1892 to my grandfather James Peter Prentice, Jr. in Crawford Co., IL. We assumed that since her handwriting was so poor the clerk must have spelled it that way. She seemed confused about the whole thing as she signed her application as Mary E. Prentice rather than her maiden name.

Also on the marriage application and certificate I have she gives her mother's maiden name as Shewmaker however in the Crawford Co. library gene records they have that she gave her mother's maiden name as Walker?? Cannot understand how 2 documents come up w/conflicting data???

Thanks again, Donna Clem Weisman

The Vigo County Historical Society forwarded your letter of June 23 to the library.

I am enclosing a research report listing the sources I checked for John Durham Clem. As you can see, I found quite a lot about him, as well as his father George. However, I did not find a photograph of John D.

If you would like copies of any of the items on the research report, our charge is 15¢ per page, plus postage. We only have the index to the death records, not the actual records. Those are filed in the Vigo County Health Dept., Vital Statistics, 201 Cherry St., Terre Haute, IN 47807. We do have the Terre Haute newspapers on microfilm and could look for obituaries of George and Louisa Clem.

You might be able to contact descendants of John Clem by writing the genealogical query column in the newspaper. Queries are free but should be limited to 50 words. The address is: Genealogy, Dorothy Clark, Terre Haute Tribune-Star, PO Box 149, Terre Haute, IN 47808.

I am returning your check as it is made out to the Vigo County Historical Society.

Dear Director:

Do you have any records, newspaper clippings or genealogical data on JOHN DURHAM CLEM, who served in the House of Representatives from Vigo County, Indiana, in 1901?

I am writing a history of the Clem/Klem families in America and would like to share something about John Durham Clem. I am enclosing a printout of his genealogical data as I now have it. Hopefully you can provide additional information about him.

Do you have a file photo of him? If so, would it be possible to acquire a glossy print of it?

If you are able to help me with copies of any data or a photo, please advise me of the cost. I am enclosing a personal check in the amount of $5.00.

Sincerely,

Dee
